13th November, 2015

Dear Parents,

I am immensely proud of how well our pupils represented the school at the Remembrance Service on Wednesday. Class 1 held up the wreaths they have made from cut outs of the children's hands with poppies on, and Class 2 read out their fantastic poem which they wrote in class last week. Well done everyone.

Class 1 made clay poppies and also painted pictures of poppies on the Remembrance Day theme. They have been trying to come up with interesting ways to describe their dragons, and have also been doing songs to do with Jack and The Beanstalk, as well as remembering the names of some of the unusual shapes they have found.

Class 2 pupils have started looking at the history of the school, finding old photographs and exploring the older parts of our building, and they have started reading their new book, Leon and The Place in Between, which they have been enjoying.

There has been great excitement all round the school for this year's Children in Need Appeal. It's great to see how diverse and imaginative the characters who came into school are. Well done everyone, and thank you for all your hard work to contribute towards this year's appeal.

Don't forget the photographer is coming into school for individual photos next Friday, 20th November.

Thank you for all your continued support.

God bless and have a lovely weekend.

Best wishes from Katie Gray and the staff at Farway School
